Connie Deckert has earned the title of pro in every sense of the word, from the game of golf which was introduced to Connie at a young age by her Dad, to becoming a solo entrepreneur when running her family business in Elmira. Connie learned the important lessons on how to build business success. An accomplished professional, Connie steadily built her career as a golf pro achieving the highly coveted membership in the LPGA Teaching and Club Professionals. She joins the elite 1,600 women worldwide with only 30 in Canada. In addition to being designated a LPGA Golf Professional, Connie is also a Level III golf teacher with the Golf Teachers' Federations in both Canada and the United States. Talent leads to mastery and Fore U Enterprises was born, a business of all things golf where Connie could pass on her experience and expertise.

Connie is an impassioned advocate of women's rights. As a member of Kitchener-Waterloo Zonta Club for over 25 years she has been honoured with the Betty Thompson Award for her work. She is a supporter of The Women's Legal and Action Fund in Toronto (LEAF), an organization that has been guarding women's rights in Canada in court cases since women were given equality under our Constitution back in the early 80's. When not on the golf course, Connie enjoys being a member of the Noteworthy Singers, a dynamic senior's choir, spends time travelling and influencing her clients in the game of golf and life on the golf course.

The only limit to the height of your achievements is the reach of your dreams and your willingness to work hard for them. – Michelle Obama
