Jacqui McFarlane has dedicated her life to helping people in her community. As a recipient of the Lions Club Citizen of the Year award, she has been recognized for her volunteer work. Jacqui assisted in the early 1970's with bringing Block Parent to every school in the Waterloo region. She continues to help change women's lives with the Family Relocation Project and make a positive impact through her community work with The Kiwanis Club of Waterloo North.

In 1987 Jacqui started a new career in the insurance industry and joined the KWBWA. She is passionate about lifelong learning and sharing her knowledge with her clients and colleagues. Jacqui has worked hard to earn her impressive designations over the years and was honoured as a recipient of the Million Dollar Round Table award in 2000. As a member of Advocis, the professional association for Financial Advisors, she is informed and up-to-date with the changing financial environment. Jacqui's education and training has given her the expertise to assist clients with their financial and retirement planning needs.

"The positive thinker sees the invisible, feels the intangible, and achieves the impossible." – Winston Churchill
