

KWBWA Member Spotlight

Sharon Sweeney

Director of Admissions, triOS College

Sharon.Sweeney@trios.com

www.trios.com

Today we highlight Sharon Sweeney, an outstanding member of the Kitchener Waterloo Business Women's Association. Sharon is passionate about helping others — whether it's her students, colleagues or strangers, you will find her extending herself to others. She has a beautiful gift of making this world a better place. In May, Sharon will be celebrating a couple of milestones with her upcoming 60th birthday and 10 years as a member with the KWBWA. Congratulations and best wishes!

Sharon was in the insurance industry for 20 plus years before moving into college admissions. She started with triOS College in December 2003 and is an annual award recipient for her exemplary service. If you are looking to enhance your skills or ready for a career change, reach out to Sharon and her team. With over 22 years of education experience under their belts, triOS College is the choice for many people training for a new career. Proudly Canadian owned and operated, triOS is one of Canada's largest career training organizations.

We are here to help you become job-ready and follow your passion. Start your journey today!